Tuesday January 18, 2011
1st Period PAWS

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Students: If you did not receive your second semester schedule on Thursday, please come to the counseling office and pick up your schedule.

Mr. Green is meticulously prepared, he's in character, and he's ready to motivate you... Today at lunch time on the front lawn Mr. Green will re-create Dr. Martin Luther King's inspiring "I Have a Dream" speech. It's a performance you don't want to miss... (If the weather turns ugly, we'll move this to the gym).

This week's Senior of the Week, nominated by Ms. Eeds, is Elizabeth Fazzare because she received the highest score on the AP Art History Midterm, which was a seriously hard test.

The Student of the Week, selected by Mr. Penrose, is Richard Reece because of his resolute determination and stellar English grades.

The Male Athlete of the Week is John Schupp because he wrestled to a 5-1 record at The Clash National Duals, helping his team finish 10th and defeat three nationally ranked teams.

The Female Athlete of the Week is Cheer Squad Captain Kylie Hess because she has worked tirelessly since last May to help deliver exciting routines and over-the-top school spirit.

Our third Blood Drive of the year is quickly approaching. It's scheduled for Tuesday, Feb. 8 and we're pushing to make this one the most productive of the year. Your generosity can go a long way toward keeping people alive after they undergo life-threatening surgeries or and involved in horrific accidents. Sign up in Room 50 to give the gift of life.

Vaca High's annual male beauty pageant, the Mr. GQ Competition, is just around the corner and we need tons of talented guys who want to compete for the crown. Want to see your friends dance in a chorus line, sing, juggle, or play the guitar? Ever wondered what that particular guy might look like in a tux or a bathing suit? Well, persuade them to sign up so you can see them shake their stuff on stage. The theme this year is "Vaca High's Cowboy Casanova," and the date is Friday, March 4. Sign-ups are currently under way in Room 50.

Juniors: Late registration for the February 12th ACT Test ends January 21st. Register on-line at www.actstudent.org. ~Pierscinski
